The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by his Lordſhip been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſbyterian Miniſters of the general Synod of Ulſter, in your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave to renew our former Aſſurances of a ſteady Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family; the Eſtabliſhment of which, on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, we have ever regarded as the beſt Support, under God, of our excellent Conſtitution, and of all our Rights, civil and religious.

With peculiar Satisfaction we approach your Majeſty, with Expreſſions of the moſt grateful Acknowledgement for the late Inſtance of your Royal Munificence, in granting us an Augmentation of the Royal Bounty.

This,

I & I Langdale
1 May Dividend

This Mark of your Majeſty's moſt gracious Protection we receive with moſt reſpectful Gratitude; and would fondly conſider it an Earneſt of ſuch farther Extenſion of the Royal Bounty as may enable us, with becoming Spirit and greater Uſefulneſs, to execute our Office among that numerous, valuable and loyal Part of your Majeſty's Subjects that are under our Paſtoral Care.

With conſcious Pride we can reflect, that the Preſbyterians of the General Synod of Ulſter have ever been, in all Revolutions, moſt loyal to the Crown. That no Principle unfavourable to Monarchy and our Conſtitution has ever been taught by any of our Communion, who all revere our Form of Government as a wiſe and happy Conſtitution which ought to be preſerved inviolate in theſe Kingdoms, and who think themſelves particularly bleſt by the Countenance and paternal Regard of your Majeſty, and by the generous and uniform Protection they have received from the Princes of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe.

In this Perſuaſion we ſhall always continue to offer up our Prayers to that Almighty Being who governs the Kingdoms of the Earth by His Providence, that He may direct your Majeſty's Councils by His unerring Wiſdom, encompaſs your Sacred Perſon with His Favour as with a Shield, and make your Government an univerſal Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms.

Signed this 21ſt Day of February, 1784.

Benj. M'Dowal, } Commiſſioners.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Sheffield, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IN the preſent alarming Situation of public Affairs, we beg Leave to approach your Throne, with the moſt ardent and unfeigned Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Family. We acknowledge, with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude, the numerous Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's benign Government; and moſt humbly thank your Majeſty for your ſingular Attention to the Welfare and Wiſhes of your People, in the Diſmiſſion of the late Miniſtry. We have beheld, with an indignant Spirit, the violent and unconſtitutional Attempts of a few intereſted and ambitious Men to force themſelves into your Majeſty's Service and Councils; whoſe Principles we humbly conceive to be obnoxious to your Majeſty, and on whom your People dare not repoſe the leaſt Confidence. We view, with the profoundeſt Admiration, the venerable Structure of our ancient Conſtitution, and fervently pray that it may be tranſmitted inviolate to our lateſt Poſterity. We have the firmeſt Reliance on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Goodneſs, that you will employ in your Service Men whoſe Abilities and unbiaſſed Integrity may beſt promote the Welfare and Happineſs of this great Commercial Kingdom; and that your Majeſty will not remove thoſe againſt whom no ſpecific Accuſation can be proved. Senſible as we are that the Stability and Duration of our excellent Conſtitution muſt depend on the equal Proportion and legal Exerciſe of all its conſtituent Parts, we deſire to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will firmly ſupport (as far as in us lies) your Majeſty's juſt Rights and Prerogatives; and we earneſtly implore the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events, that your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, united and happy People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to the King by Richard Hopkins, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for Borough of Thetford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to approach your Throne at this alarming Criſis, to expreſs our uninfluenced Aſſurances of Attachment and Fidelity to your Sacred Perſon and Family; Aſſurances reſulting only from the Effuſion of grateful Minds, truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

We admire and contemplate, with the higheſt Satisfaction and Pleaſure, your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Regard for your People, in the judicious Appointment of your preſent Miniſters, by a legal and Conſtitutional Exertion of your Royal Prerogative. And we moſt ſincerely thank your Majeſty for the Confidence you are pleaſed to repoſe in your preſent Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, not doubting but that from his Integrity, Conſtitutional Principles, and exalted Abilities, the Dignity and Luſtre of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Happineſs of your People, will be preſerved inviolate.

We have deliberated on this Subject with Calmneſs, and pledge ourſelves to act with Steadineſs, Intrepidity, and Fervour, in the Support of your legal Prerogative, and the Honour and Safety of your Government.

Given under our Common Seal at the ſaid City, the 16th Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Citizens of the ancient City of Rocheſter, has been preſented to the King by Mr. Alderman Byne, Mr. Alderman Nicholſon, and Mr. J. White, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE!

TRULY ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government, we the Mayor and Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Rocheſter, in Guildhall aſſembled, beg Leave to addreſs and thank your Majeſty for nobly ſupporting your Honour and Dignity againſt the Encroachment of One Branch of the Legiſlature on the other, and to aſſure your Majeſty of the Support of your faithful Citizens, to reſtore Energy and Stability to the Three Powers of Government founded on Conſtitutional Principles, againſt all improper Innovations.

That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, happy, and united People, and preſerve the Sceptre of Great Britain inviolate and glorious, is our moſt ſincere and ardent Wiſh.

[Signed by 215 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkeſbury, has been preſented to the King by James Martin, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkeſbury, in the County of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, with all Humility preſent our Aſſurances of faithful and ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

Our happy Conſtitution having placed in your Majeſty's Power the ſole Appointment of Miniſters, we firmly rely on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Affection at all Times to raiſe to thoſe exalted Stations, Men of diſtinguiſhed Abilities, ſtrict Integrity, and ſound Conſtitutional Principles.

We cannot but expreſs our moſt ſincere and cordial Approbation of the Conduct and manly Reſolution of thoſe Perſons whom your Majeſty has at this Time thought moſt eligible to fill thoſe important Offices.—And we truſt, and ſincerely hope, as they are ſo emminently diſtinguiſhed for their private and public Virtues, having the Confidence of their Sovereign, and the good Opinion of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, they will be ever animated by an honeſt and laudable Zeal to ſerve their Country.

Repeating our ſtrong Aſſurances that we will always ſtedfaſtly ſupport the Conſtitutional Exerciſe of your Majeſty's juſt Prerogatives, to the utmoſt of our Power, we moſt heartily wiſh you every Comfort and Bleſſing this World can afford; and earneſtly pray that your Majeſty may long glorioufly reign over a free, happy, and united People.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Redruth has been preſented to the King by Sir Francis Baſſett, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Penryn, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Redruth, in the County of Cornwall, deeply impreſſed with Sorrow at the preſent lamentable State of Publick Affairs, occaſioned, as we conceive, by the Want of a firm and united Adminiſtration, beg Leave to expreſs our moſt earneſt Hope that your Majeſty will, in Compliance with the Wiſhes of the Houſe of Commons, call into your Councils ſuch Men as may have the Confidence of Parliament, under whoſe Adminiſtration this Country may once more regain its Conſequence, and we may again become a happy and united People.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Edinburgh, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, conceive it to be our Duty now to exerciſe that Privilege, the Birthright of Britons, of approaching the Throne of their Sovereign, and of conveying to His Ear, the unbiaſſed, unſolicited, and honeſt Expreſſion of their Sentiments and Wiſhes.

While we have beheld of late, with great Concern, the moſt open and reſolute Efforts towards an Innovation of our admirable Conſtitution, both in the Attempt to create a new executive Power, and in the Challenge of the moſt clear and defined Prerogative of the Crown:—While we have ſeen theſe Attempts ſeconded by a determined and uniform Endeavour to impede every Meaſure of Government, we have marked, with a Heart-felt Satisfaction, the Exertion on the Part of your Majeſty, of a calm and perſevering Wiſdom, in the ſteady Refuſal of your Acquieſcence in thoſe Demands of diſappointed Partizans, which would ſtrip the Sovereign of His legal Powers, and deſtroy the Balance of that Conſtitution which is the Admiration and Envy of Europe.

We are fully convinced, Sire, that, ſince the glorious Era of the Revolution, the Sceptre of theſe Realms has never been wielded with more Moderation, nor the Rights of the People more inviolably preſerved, than under your Majeſty's Reign: And we truſt that your Majeſty, with the Aid of able Miniſters of your free Choice and Appointment, will invariably purſue ſuch Meaſures of Government, as will tend to the Maintenance of the juſt Rights of every Branch of the Conſtitution, and the Happineſs of your Subjects.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Præſes of the Meeting, at Edinburgh, the 11th of March, 1784.

Arch. Hope.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Glaſgow, has been preſented to the King by John Craufurd, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the City of Glaſgow, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Glaſgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the City of Glaſgow, in Common Council aſſembled, conſider it as our Duty, at this important Criſis of Public Affairs, to expreſs to your Majeſty the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Zeal and Attachment to your Perſon, Family and Government.

Conſcious of the Benefits we derive from our excellent Conſtitution, and from your Majeſty's paternal Concern for the Welfare of your People, we approach the Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude, Gratitude for the Endeavours your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to employ for uniting in the Public Service thoſe who appear to be beſt qualified to form an efficient, firm, extended Adminiſtration, entitled to the Confidence of your People, and calculated to put an End to the unhappy Diviſions which have ſo fatally poſtponed and obſtructed the Public Buſineſs, at a Period of ſuch preſſing Emergency.

Attached to no Party, our ardent Wiſh is for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Reign, and for the Eſtabliſhment of ſuch a ſtrong and ſtable Government as ſhall put an End to thoſe unhappy Diſtractions which have filled the Minds of your faithful Subjects with the moſt ſerious Alarm; and while we ſincerely lament that your Majeſty's Endeavours have hitherto been ineffectual in promoting that Union which you have called for, and which the Houſe of Commons have pointed out, we beg Leave humbly to expreſs to your Majeſty the juſt Senſe we entertain of your Regard to the Welfare of your Kingdoms, in being graciouſly pleaſed to prevent ſtill greater Inconvenience to the Public Affairs, by declining to vacate the eſſential Offices of executive Government, until ſuch Union can be effected upon fair and equal Terms. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our firmeſt Support in the juſt Exerciſe of every Prerogative intruſted to your Majeſty by our excellent Conſtitution.

That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, happy, and united People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Glaſgow.

Signed and ſealed with the Common Seal of the City, in their Preſence, and by their Appointment, at Glaſgow, the 9th Day of March, 1784.

Pat. Colquhoun, Provoſt.

Admiralty-Office, March 18, 1784.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament paſſed in the 26th Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information has been ſent to this Office, that on the 4th Inſtant, the Ship Francoiſe Joſephim, whereof Jean Francois Dufour was Maſter, bound from Marſeilles to Havre de Grace, in a thick Fog went on Shore in the Port of Penzance, and was totally loſt; but that all the Men belonging to her were ſaved.

St. James's, March 16, 1784.

WHEREAS the King's Cellar, near to the Cuſtom-houſe Warehouſe, in the Port of Lyme, in the County of Dorſet, was, on the 29th of December laſt, early in the Morning, broke open by ſome Perſon or Perſons unknown, who feloniouſly took and carried away Seven Caſks of Brandy and Geneva, which had been ſeized and depoſited therein by Way of Security:

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in this Robbery, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe his moſt Gracious Pardon to any one of them who ſhall diſcover one or more of his Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms do hereby promiſe a Reward of Thirty Pounds, over and above the Reward of Twenty Guineas already offered, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, upon Conviction.

William Stiles, Secretary.

St. James's, March 6, 1784.

WHEREAS on Monday the 9th of laſt Month, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night, as John Harriſon, Head Surviſor of the Riding Officers in the Service of the Cuſtoms at Scarbrough, was, in the Execution of his Duty, attending upon the Sands within the Harbour; in Company with other Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, to look after any Perſon or Perſons who might be concerned in the landing or carrying away any Sort of Prohibited or Uncuſtomed Goods, he received a Ball diſcharged from a Gun or Piſtol, which went through his Great Coat, and through that Part of his Under Coat, where his Pocket was, and hitting on the Right Hand Side againſt his Powder Flaſk (in his Coat Pocket) which is Braſs covered with Leather, though it dented the Flaſk, was thereby repelled, but gave a great Shock to the ſaid Harriſon, who then heard the Report of a Gun or Piſtol.

That on Mr. Harriſon's receiving the Ball ſo diſcharged, he took out his Piſtol, and, with a Dragoon who was in Company with him, immediately advanced to the Place from whence the Gun or Piſtol was ſuppoſed to be fired, but could not find any Perſon there, or any Fire Arms.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in this atrocious Offence, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders (except the Perſon who actually fired) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms do hereby promiſe a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, the Perſon who actually fired on the Officer as aforeſaid, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms upon Conviction.

William Stiles, Secretary.
